

27th Annual Meetings Call for Papers May 6-7, 2022 • Minneapolis, MN, USA

The Society of Labor Economists will hold its Twenty-Seventh Annual Meetings May 6–7, 2022, at the Radisson Blu in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA. While we are planning for an in-person meeting at this point, we are closely monitoring the situation of the COVID-19 pandemic and its potential impact on international travel.

Individuals are invited to submit proposals through the Mirasmart online submissions system. Complete papers should be submitted for both full and poster sessions. Only one submission per person is permitted. The deadline for submission is October 31, 2021. If you have questions, please contact bobbie@sole-jole.org.

We encourage potential participants to become members of SOLE. Membership provides many benefits including:

- A large discount on the conference registration fee
- A subscription to JOLE, the Journal of Labor Economics, the official journal of the Society
- Reduced submission fee to JOLE
- Mentoring opportunities with senior labor economists

We are also pleased to report a new reduced membership rate will be available to graduate students interested in joining the Society. See more information on membership rates and benefits of that come with joining the Society.
